
What is an example of computing capacity offered by LUSITANIA?

LUSITANIA supercomputer has a maximum power calculating peak of 1850 GigaFLOPS . The FLOPS (Floating point Operations Per Second) is used as a measure of computer performance, especially in scientific calculations that require heavy use of floating point operations.

URL del envío: <https://www.cenits.es/node/582>